1.0 STUDENT CHARTER OF RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

In their ongoing efforts to enjoy a community free from discrimination, harassment or violence, the students, faculty and staff of the university cooperate to sustain a safe environment which promotes learning and personal development. Like all members of the Mount community, students are expected to make responsible decisions and to follow university regulations. In turn, the University provides the opportunity for students to engage fully in its academic, social and recreational programming.

The purpose of this policy is to inform students of both their rights and responsibilities as well as to outline the consequences for those who do not abide by them.

1.1 Student Rights

Students can expect to:

- a) Enjoy living in a community which promotes the dignity of human beings and prohibits harassment and discrimination as it is defined in the University's Fair Treatment ¹Policy.
- b) Enjoy living in a tolerant community where freedom of expression, belief and political association is celebrated provided these beliefs do not interfere with the rights of others or contravene university policy.
- c) Freely manage their own personal lives and behavior subject to the criminal and civil laws of Nova Scotia, Canada, and university regulations.
- d) Have the principles of due process and natural justice applied to all disciplinary procedures. Specifically:
 - i. That the student has notice of the alleged violation;
 - ii. That the student be given the opportunity to hear the charge or complaint and respond to it;
 - iii. That the person or body deciding the student's fate be impartial and unbiased;
- e) Pursue their education in an environment which is safe and secure.
- f) Have their privacy protected in a manner consistent with university policy and privacy legislation.
- g) Belong to any lawful association of their choosing including the right to assemble and participate in demonstrations within the University provided that such actions do not violate the rights of other members of the University community nor breach the responsibilities as outlined in this Charter.

1.2 Student Responsibilities

- a) As members of the University community, students are expected to contribute to making it safe, respectful and inclusive. Conduct which threatens or endangers the health, safety, well-being or dignity of any person contravenes university regulations.
- b) All students are responsible for understanding and observing the policies of the University including, but not limited to, policies noted in this charter. These include the University's Fair Treatment Policy, the policies listed in the University Calendar, the Co-Op Conduct Policy, and the Guidelines for Use of Information Technology. For residence students it also includes the rules and policies set out in the residence handbook.
- c) Each student is responsible for contributing to a community that is supportive of every member's academic pursuits. Conduct that interferes with another student's ability to complete academic requirements is considered to be misconduct.
- d) No person, while on property owned, leased or controlled by the University shall store, use or carry a weapon.
- e) Failure to comply with the instructions of university or Students' Union officials acting in performance of their authorized duties is considered to be misconduct.
- f) Students consuming alcohol are obliged to do so responsibly, to abide by the Liquor Control Act of Nova Scotia and to ensure his/her own safety and the safety of others.
- g) Misusing legal prescriptions or possessing, using or distributing illegal drugs is prohibited on property controlled, leased or owned by the University.
- h) Students are prohibited from gaining unauthorized entry to University premises and from unauthorized possession of University property. Causing property damage, vandalism, defacement, destruction, theft, misuse or tampering with University property is prohibited. This includes tampering with or removing fire-fighting equipment including fire alarms, extinguishers, exit signs, fire hoses, smoke detectors or emergency lights. It also includes arson and pulling fire alarms without appropriate cause.
- i) Acts of dishonesty are a breach of the Charter including, but not limited to:
 - i. Knowingly furnishing false information and
 - ii. Fraud, forgery, alterations, or misrepresentation of documents, university records or instruments of identification (acts of academic dishonesty are addressed under the Academic Offences Policy).

2.0 NON-ACADEMIC DISCIPLINE POLICY

Jurisdiction

This Policy applies to:

- a) Conduct that occurs on the premises of the University;
- b) Conduct that occurs at a University sponsored event, program, or activity, whether the event, program or activity is on campus or off-campus; and
- c) Other off-campus conduct when the individual is acting as a designated representative of the University or a student group or organization of the University, or when the individual holds himself or herself out as a representative of the University or student group or organization of the University.

2.1 If a student's conduct could be considered a breach of this Policy and also a breach of another policy or policies outlined in the University's Calendars and, for students living in residence in the MSVU Residence Handbook, the University may, in its discretion, proceed under this Policy, or under the aforesaid Policies. A student may not be penalized under this Policy as well as another for the same conduct.

2.2 Any student found responsible for misconduct is subject to the disciplinary sanctions outlined in the Policy, regardless of the action or inaction of civil or criminal authorities. Nothing in this Policy precludes the University from referring an individual matter to the appropriate law enforcement agency before, during, or after disciplinary action is taken by the university under this policy. 3.1 By submitting a letter outlining the cause for complaint to the Associate Vice President, Student Experience, any member of the University Community may initiate a complaint against a student.

3.2 By submitting a letter to the Associate Vice President, Student Experience, any student may initiate a complaint alleging a breach by the University or by a member of the campus community of the student rights outlined in the Student Charter of Rights and Responsibilities.
